

Rees Symington, Stuart (Sr)

WASHINGTON
DAILY NEWS

JUN 3 1966

✓ CIA

Sen. Stuart Symington (D., Md.), said in a Senate speech that the secret nature of the Central Intelligence Agency prevents its defending itself when false accusations are made against it. He said recent allegations of clandestine CIA operations involving Cuba and Portugal were untrue. (UPI)